Good Views Reveal Great Vision

Community Background

Buena Vista is an independent City nestled in the heart of Virginia's Shenandoah Valley and surrounded by natural beauty. The City is situated on the western slopes of the Blue Ridge Mountains and along the Maury River. It is partially surrounded by the Jefferson and George Washington National Forests and just six short miles from the Appalachian Trail and Blue Ridge Parkway, which provides numerous opportunities for outdoor recreation. Additional recreational opportunities are available at Glen Maury Park, a 315 acre multi-use municipal park (the largest in the Commonwealth!), and Vista Links, an 18-hole municipal golf course.

A major transportation network adds to this beautiful location. Interstates 64 and 81 intersect just four miles outside of the City and provide local businesses with direct access to the markets of the Midwest and the East Coast. Additionally, Buena Vista is served directly by U.S. Routes 501 and 60 and indirectly by U.S. Route 11. The Norfolk Southern Railroad also runs right through the city, supporting the strong industrial sector of its economy.

Buena Vista's neighboring localities include the City of Lexington, six miles to the west, and Rockbridge County. Buena Vista is considered the traditional manufacturing nucleus of the region. There are four universities and colleges within eight miles of the City. Buena Vista itself is home two dynamic and growing institutions of higher education, Southern Virginia University \(SVU\) and Dabney S. Lancaster Community College \(DSLCC\) Rockbridge Center.

Buena Vista is home to a fully-accredited public school system that includes a contemporary high school, a middle school, and two elementary schools. A total enrollment of approximately 1,040 students enables the faculty to provide personal attention and outstanding instruction. The school system offers fantastic technology programs, art programs, and sports programs. All of which have received awards for their accomplishments.
